John McGraw would turn loose a line-up as soon as the weather gets pretty good wad of money right now good enough for a game. Eddie to get this sensational though erratic Rouseh hits well enough, but his inexperience in base running has been expensive. Once he gets the big league angle, though, Eddis ought to be a star of the magnitude of Schulte, Carey or Magee.

Darkness ended the game at Cleve-land between the Senators and the Indians in the fourteenth inning, 5 to 5. The Senators' scoring was con-fined to the first inning, while the Indians, after a hard up-hill battle, succeeded in tying things up in the ninth by driving Harper from the box and chasing three runs over the plate. Ray Chapman made his first appearance in the Cleveland line-up since he sprained his ankle April 27.

ing Golf With Alex Smith," will start to-morrow on the sporting pages of The Evening World. The series, written by the former Na-tional, Metropolitan and Western champion and the man who taught many of our present day title holders, will be rich in advice to both the thousands who plan tak-ing up the game and the additional ing up the game and the additional thousands who will find much to improve their own style. The series will deal with the various clubs, how they should be played, hints on getting out of various kinds of trouble on the links and an article devoted to women players. "Learning Golf With Alex Smith" will be an exclusive feature for The Evening World. It will appear on these pages at least once every week.

THIRD ROUND-Frank Dyer. Montclair, beat Roy Webb, Englewood, 2 up and 1 to play; Fred Herreshoff, Garden City, beat Harold A. Downey, Apawamis, 2 up and 1 to play; Max Marston, Baltusrol, beat M. P. Lewis, Flushing, 3 up and 2 to play; Oswald Kirkby, Englewood, beat Reginald M. Lewis, Wykagyl, 6 up and 5 to play.

Lewis was wild and went all over the course. Kirkby, in good form, only had to play safe and let Lewis

As a forerunner of what was to ome. Lewis started the match by topping his drive on the first hole the ball going barely forty yards. This miscue gave Kirkby an early lead which he never lost. Lewis managed to win but a single hole, the short eighth over a pond where Kirkby just missed the green on his ce shot.

The story of the youngster's downfall is simply on account of his fre-quent spells of wildness on the long seventh, he butted into two traps. On the seventh he drove out of bounds almost to the railroad tracks. At the almost to the railroad tracks. At the turn Kirkby was 3 up. Lewis here shed his cap for a change of luck. Lewis lost the short tenth on poor putting. He was short all the way to the eleventh and dropped that one. Kirkby laid a great 150-yard midiron approach dead to the top cup on the hill twelfth, and Lewis never had a chance for a rally. Kirkby only had to square the thirteenth to win the match 6 and 5. The cards: Kirkby, out..... Kirkby, out ... 4 5 4 4 5 4 4 4 38

Playing conditions to-day were greatly improved. The heavy rains of the last two days simmered down to a drizzle, a change that lured many spectators from the shelter of the club house.

The feature match was the battle between Kirby and Lewis, but instead of being a snappy fight it turned out to be a walkover for Kirkby.

Lewis, the twenty-year-old Wykagyl star, who eliminated a pair of strong favorites yesterday, was miles off his game against Kirkby. The Englewood champlon simply treated his young opponent to a lesson in how the game should be played. BELMONT PARK RACE TRACK.
